

CODE OF CONDUCT FOR DISTRICT 8 TRAVEL LEAGUE COACHES/MANAGERS

The Executive Staff of District 8 Little League has mandated the following Code of Conduct for all Managers and Coaches participating in the District 8 Travel League Program. The Coach/Manager will sign this form to acknowledge the he/she understands this Code of Conduct and agrees to comply with it.

District 8 Code of Conduct:

No Manager or Coach Shall:

- At any time, lay a hand upon, push, shove, strike or threaten an official.
- At any time, be guilty of any verbal abuse, either directly or indirectly, toward any official.
- At any time, be guilty of a demonstration of dissent at an official's decision by the throwing or kicking of balls, bats, helmets, etc.
- At any time, use profane, obscene or vulgar language in any manner.
- At any time, argue with or direct abusive comments toward an official on a judgment call (meaning balls & strikes, out or safe and fair or foul).

A Manager or Coach Shall:

- Call time-out, and have the time-out granted, before approaching an official to discuss a call.
- Be responsible for the proper conduct of his players and/or his spectators.
- Be respectful of the officials and the opposing Coaches and Players.

This penalty for violating any part of this Code of Conduct shall result in the immediate ejection from the game. District 8's definition of an ejection means the offending person must leave the premises. Any violation could require the Coach/Manager to appear before the Executive Board and could result in expulsion from the program if deemed necessary by the Executive Board.

I have read the District 8 Code of Conduct and I agree to adhere to it:
